

433
82

RUTH NOLIN'S AND ANN ADAIR'S
BIRTHDAY PARTY

This party began at four o'clock. Mrs. Adair took pictures of us first. Then we played games, such as "hide-and-go-seeek," "drop-the-handkerchief," "London bridge is falling down," "a treasure hunt," and "pussy-wants-a-corner." The treasures were tops, which we worked by blowing at them. After this we had supper. For supper we had carrots, lettuce, and peanut-butter sandwiches. For dessert we had both white and brown cake, fudge, peanut-brittle, and grapes. We had a nice time and everybody liked it.

Willard Galloway